

Invitation

Europe and Israel in a Time of Change and Opportunities: Evening Seminar on New Trends and Opportunities for Israel and the EU

Monday, 24 February, 2014, 17:00-19:00
29 Hamered St., Tel-Aviv, Israel Export Institute, 5th Floor

The Israel-European Union Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the EU Delegation to the State of Israel, in cooperation with the Israel Export Institute and the Manufacturers Association, are pleased to invite you to an evening seminar on new trends and opportunities for Israel in trading with the EU.

This seminar is an opportunity to learn on these issues, and to strengthen networking opportunities.

This seminar is intended for the Ambassadors and Commercial Attachés of EU countries in Israel and the members of the EU countries bi-national Chambers of Commerce and Industry, representatives of Governmental Ministries and Economic Organizations.

Agenda:

17:00-17:30- Gathering.

17:30-17:35- Mr. Gad Propper, Chairman of the Israel- European Union Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Opening Statement.

17:35-18:00- Mr. Lars Faaborg- Andersen, Ambassador of the EU Delegation: Overview of the Economic, Trade and R&D Prospects and Relations between the EU and Israel for the coming years.

18:00-18:30- Prof. Leonardo Leiderman, Professor of Economics in Tel Aviv University and Head Economics Department of Bank Hapoalim: Prospects for the Euro.

18:30-19:00- Panel Discussion- What are the Current Trends and Challenges to IL-EU Trade Relations? Dr. Oded Eran, Senior Research Associate at the Institute for National Security Studies, and Mr. Luigiandrea Pratolongo, Head of the Trade and Economic Section, EU Delegation. Moderator: Mr. Shmuel Ben Tovim, Board Member, Israel-EU Chamber of Commerce and Industry

RSVP :

Mr. Guy Shamai, Assistant to the GM Israel- EU Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Email: shamai.guy@gmail.com, Phone: 054-7661367.